Boozhoo!

I hope that this grey Tuesday is gentle with you.

First and foremost let me introduce myself My name is Denise B. McLeod, I am 2 Spirit Anishinaabekwe, my father's family are McLeod's from Sagamok Anishnabek First Nations, My mother is of mixed heritage her father is Indigenous and her mother is settler, my mother was scooped from the Parry Sound Hospital in 1959, as was my father and I. I have grown up in Toronto most of my life and am active member of urban Indigenous community in Toronto. As of December 2023, I stepped in to the role as Indigenous Consultant in the TTC's Diversity Department. Part of the work I am tasked to do is support engagement and consultation with First Nation Communities/Treaty holders. I am reaching out to you on behalf of the Toronto Transit Commission (TTC) regarding an important project, the Line 3 Busway Conversion program.

The TTC is currently progressing with the Line 3 Busway Conversion program, which involves converting the Scarborough Rapid Transit (SRT) Right of Way (ROW) between Kennedy Station and Ellesmere Station into a Busway. We believe it is crucial to engage with Indigenous communities throughout this process to address any concerns or issues regarding potential impacts on Indigenous (Aboriginal) rights, title, and duty to consult.

The TTC is committed to respecting cultural heritage and archaeological resources, and would like to extend an invitation for you to observe the Stage 2 digs for the Line 3 Busway project. These digs are expected to take place over three days, beginning in May, with one day allocated per site.

For any project-specific details and further communication regarding this project, please contact Arjun Sahota, our Senior Community Liaison Officer, at (647) 706 – 6487 or via email at arjun.sahota@ttc.ca. Arjun will serve as your contact for project-specific inquiries.

We are aware that this is a very quick turnaround time and understand that you have multiple project competing for your attention and time, however, If you are interested in participating or have any questions or concerns we ask for your response by May 10, 2024,. Your input and insights are invaluable to us. Thank you for your attention, and we look forward to the opportunity to engage with you further.
