BACKGROUND

On May 2, 2008, at 12:40 a.m., Wheel-Trans Operator David Woolridge was operating his vehicle southbound on the Don Valley Parkway when he came upon a serious auto accident. Operator Woolridge immediately notified dispatch and requested assistance. Wheel-Trans Operators Steve Piniotes and Nino Rossi were also travelling southbound on the DVP when they heard the dispatch. The three Operators secured, then alighted their vehicles and worked together to assist the occupants from the vehicles to the side of the road to wait for emergency assistance. Emergency response personnel attended and transported the injured parties to the hospital.
