

1. The Board received the information provided in the confidential verbal update and approved the confidential instructions provided to staff; and
2. Authorized that the information provided in the confidential verbal update remains confidential in its entirety as it contains information that is subject to solicitor-client privilege.