

The Board at its meeting of January 21, 2015:

1. Approved the recommendations as included in the confidential attachment, as amended;
and
2. Noted that the information as set out in the confidential attachment remains confidential as it contains advice and communications that are subject to solicitor-client privilege.