

Notice of Motion

Request that the City of Toronto Integrity Commissioner commence an investigation

Moved by: Chair Jamaal Myers

Seconded by: Vice-Chair Joanne De Laurentiis

Summary

During the October 27, 2023 TTC Board Meeting (“October Board Meeting”), the Board voted to go in-camera to discuss a confidential matter.

Immediately after the October Board Meeting there were a number of published news articles which purported to provide information relating to the confidential matter, or part thereof, and the in-camera deliberations of the Board.

In April 2024, there was a further published news article which indicated that the confidential information, or part thereof, provided as part of the October Board Meeting had been shared with the news outlet.

The City of Toronto Integrity Commissioner has jurisdiction to investigate Members of the TTC Board. The City of Toronto Integrity Commissioner also has jurisdiction to investigate the political staff of Members of the Board that are also Members of City Council (“Political Staff”).

In order to ensure proper accountability, the City of Toronto Integrity Commissioner should be requested to investigate whether any TTC Board Member, or their Political Staff (as applicable), acted contrary to the Code of Conduct for Members of Local Boards and/or the Code of Conduct for Members of Council, with respect to improperly disclosing confidential information or improperly disclosing deliberations that occurred in the in-camera portion of the October Board Meeting.

Recommendations

1. Request that the City of Toronto Integrity Commissioner investigate all TTC Board Members, and Political Staff (as applicable), relating to any unauthorized disclosure of:
  - a. Information contained in, or relating to, confidential information that was provided to TTC Board Members as part of October 27, 2023 TTC Board Meeting which confidential information was provided before, or during, the October 27, 2023 TTC Board Meeting; and

- b. in-camera deliberations of the Board during the October 27, 2023 TTC Board Meeting.
